FOR VIOLATION OF POSSESSION CLAUSE

Chester Taylor Goes on Trial in Circuit Court Before Jury and Special Judge Miller

VERDICT BY NIGHT POSSIBLE

Sheriff and Chief of Police Testify to Finding Moonshine in Defendant's Rooms

Chester Taylor went on trial today in the circuit court on the charge of violating the new liquor law, being charged specifically with that section in which it is illegal to have liquor in any quantity within your possession.

Fremont Miller of Franklin, judge of the Johnson county circuit court, was acting as special judge in the case, and a jury was not obtained until after eleven o'clock this morning.

One witness, Sheriff Hunt, was heard this morning, and he was followed this afternoon by Ora Blackburn, chief of police. Other officers were to testify for the state and indications were that the case would be given over to the jury late this afternoon.

Officers testified that they conducted a raid on the rooms occupied by Taylor and confiscated a pint bottle of moonshine, and also another pint bottle that contained a small amount.

The jury that heard the case consisted of A. J. Trowbridge, Albert Canady, Elmer Alexander, Don Brooks, W. B. Kirkpatrick, Theodore Abercrombie, Jess Retherford, Walter Conway, L. H. Anderson, Charles Lamberson, Loyd Wagoner and Dora David.

The trial today is the first to be tried under the illegal possession section of the new "bone dry" law in Indiana. A similar statute was declared unconstitutional when the former law was passed several years ago, and the 1925 legislature is believed to have remedied the faults in the law, so that conviction can be made if a person is found with only a few drops of liquor either on their person, or within their property.

Upon conviction on first offense, the law sets out that the person may be fined in any sum up to $500, to which may be added a sentence at the penal farm not to exceed six months. A second offense constitutes a felony, punishable with a prison term.

There was no other business in court today aside from regular routine office work in charge of Judge Sparks, who is preparing the court calendar for the final few weeks of court before summer adjournment.

INTERURBAN TRAINS COLLIDE, NINE HURT

Motorman on Southbound Car Took Headache Tablet and Remembered Nothing Afterwards

ACCIDENT NEAR KOKOMO

(By United Press)

Kokomo, Ind., June 3.—Nine persons were seriously injured and fifteen others slightly hurt today in a head-on collision between two interurban trains on the Union Traction lines five miles northeast of here.

Motormen of the trains had time to check the speed before the crash. The northbound train had a trailer and all three coaches caught fire and were destroyed.

C. O. Hodges, a passenger on the northbound car said there was no panic although the car was well filled.

The northbound car was steel construction and ploughed through the smoker of the southbound car. Ambulances and fire fighting apparatus was rushed from Kokomo to the scene.

The two cars were supposed to meet at Castor, a siding near the scene of the accident.

Motorman Compton of the southbound car said he had been suffering from a headache and took two tablets of medicine and after that he remembered nothing until the crash.

INDIANA CARDS IN A COLLISION

Both Machines Damaged But Occupants Are Not Hurt

An accident occurring north of the city near the R. J. Hall farm shortly after seven o'clock Tuesday evening resulted in slight damage being done to two cars, one being a Ford coupe owned by Harry Barrett, local restaurant proprietor.

The name of the owner of the other car, which was a Ford touring, was not learned. The Barrett car was damaged about the front, a fender being badly bent and a wheel torn off. It was occupied by Mr. Barrett, his wife and mother. No one was injured.

The coupe was brought to this city by a garage crew and the touring car, which had a broken wheel and bent a fender was still in the ditch at the side of the road today.

BOULEVARD LIGHTS TO BE INSTALLED THIS MONTH

Twenty-Five Ornamental Posts Will be Erected so That Additions May Be Made

WILL BEGIN AT 11TH STREET

A. T. Mahin, superintendent of city water and light plant, announced at the city council meeting Tuesday evening that he would be ready probably by the middle of the month to begin the installation of the boulevard pedestal lights along the park driveway. There are 25 lights to be erected, in addition to four lights provided by the city on the bridge at Twelfth street.

There were not enough subscriptions for the light posts to extend from Eleventh south to Ninth, along the present city park, but the installation will be made so that these lights can be added at any time.

Simon Stewart has drawn plans in detail for the entrance to the park in North Main street, which will be erected soon.

The entrance will be constructed of ornamental brick, capped with stone, and there will be an ornamental light on each post.

The appearance of the boulevard has been improved since the rye crop along either side has been cut.

LONE UNMASKED BANDIT HOLDS UP BRANCH BANK

Coolly Walks Away With $3,000 in Cash After Locking Three Employees in the Basement

AN INDIANAPOLIS ROBBERY

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., June 3.—A lone unmasked bandit today held up the Rural Street branch of the Fletcher Savings and Trust Company here and coolly walked away with $3,000 in cash after locking three employees of the bank in the basement.

The three employees were alone in the bank when the man entered and asked for change for a $100 bill. He was dressed in an overall suit, was small of stature, and about forty years of age.

Mrs. Mary Chapman, manager of the bank, was at the counter while Donald Kallach and John Wiles, assistants, were working back of the case.

The bandit thrust a revolver in Mrs. Chapman's face and reached across the counter and took all the money in the cage and then forced the employees to go into the basement of the building.

The same bank was robbed of $4,000 last October when two bandits held up a clerk.

ROOF CATCHES FIRE

The fire department was called this morning at 9:30 o'clock to the residence of Ronald Breece, 902 North Willow street, where the roof had ignited near a chimney. The loss was only a small matter, as it was discovered before the shingles were given a chance to get on fire all over. The property is owned by Mrs. W. A. Caldwell, and the loss covered by insurance, not exceeding $3.

High Officials of City and State and Escort of Scottish Rite Masons Meet Train

INDIANAPOLIS IN TRIBUTE

Indianapolis, Ind., June 3.—The body of Thomas Riley Marshall, former vice president of the United States, was brought back to his native state of Indiana today.

High officials of the state and city and an escort of Scottish Rite Masons, met the train bearing the body of the war time vice-president, when it arrived from Washington at 11:30 a. m.

As the funeral procession moved through the heart of Indianapolis to the Marshall home on North Illinois street, chimed on Christ church tolled a funeral dirge.

A detachment of twenty mounted policemen headed the procession. Flags on all public buildings were at half mast and traffic came to a standstill as the cortege passed.

Funeral services in charge of the Scottish Rite, of which the late vice president was a state officer, will be held at the Marshall home at 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

After the funeral the body will be taken to Crown Hill cemetery and placed in a receiving vault pending final arrangements for burial beside the father and mother of Marshall in the cemetery at Marion, Ind.

Plans to have the body lie in state in the rotunda of the state capitol building were given up when the widow made it known that she was opposed to the arrangements.

KEEPING PEACE ITS HIGHEST FUNCTION

Coolidge Tells Annapolis Graduates Navy Can't Succeed if it Represents Naked Force

MORE THAN SWORD NEEDED

President Uses Occasion to Re-emphasize Universal Peace Aims of the United States

By DALE VAN EVERY
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., June 3.—America can only fulfill its highest functions if it exists as "an instrument of righteousness protecting the proper security of this country while serving to maintain world peace," President Coolidge said today while delivering the commencement address to the graduating class of the naval academy.

"I do not believe the American navy can succeed if it represents mere naked force," said the president. "I want to see it represent much more than that. We must make it an instrument of righteousness. If we are to promote peace on earth we must have a great deal more than the power of the sword. We must call in action the spiritual and moral forces of mankind."

The president seized the occasion to re-emphasize the universal peaceful aims of the United States.

"It is known of all the world that we have no present or traditional enemies, that we covet no territory, harbor no imperialistic designs and are not arming ourselves with the exception of attacking or being attacked," he said. "So far as we can look into the future, so far as we can gauge the power and temper of other peoples, there never was a time when it was less likely that any other nation or combination of nations would or could make any attack upon us."

In this connection Mr. Coolidge vigorously denounced persons both in and out of the military or naval services who would seek to advance the cause of preparedness by pronouncing the imminent dangers of war or by proclaiming the hostile intentions of other countries.

"The suggestion that other people are harboring a hostile intent toward us a very serious charge to make," he said. "We would not relish having our honorable motives and peaceful intentions questioned, others cannot relish having any of us question theirs."

Rush Post of Legion is Anxious to Mark the Grave of Every War Veteran in County

5 IN EAST HILL NOT LOCATED

Rush Post No. 150 of the American Legion is anxious to mark the grave of every war veteran in Rush county, and to this end, is asking the assistance of relatives and friends of veterans whose graves can not be located.

There are five graves known to be in East Hill cemetery, which can't be located by the legion committee in charge of marking the graves. They are Dr. L. P. Wilkinson, William Hearn and William Enos, in section 8, the old part of the cemetery, and Abe Enos and Ed Gilson, in section 12 of the new part of the cemetery. The committee also has the name of Benjamin James, the location of whose grave is not known. Neither does the committee know whether Herbert Yeal, World War veteran, is buried in this county.

Anyone having any information about these graves is urged to notify Russell Dearing of this city, post adjutant, who is directing the marking of the graves. Any person knowing of a soldier's grave that is not marked is requested to send word to Mr. Dearing.

All World War veterans' graves are being marked with a bronze medal and Civil War veterans with a cast iron G. A. R. medal.

CLEMENCY IS REFUSED FOR RAYMOND MORFORD

Plea That he is Needed at Home Fails to Move the State Board of Pardons

CONVICTED FOR STEALING

Gov. Jackson, upon recommendation of the state board of pardons, today refused to grant clemency to Raymond Morford, sentenced from this county last fall on a grand larceny charge. In the list of paroles granted today seven were released from state prisons, 12 persons had their sentences reduced and 64 were refused clemency.

The case of the local court involves grand larceny for which Morford and Elbert Meek were sentenced following their conviction for stealing cattle near Milroy last Halloween night, and taking them to the market at Indianapolis.

Morford resides in Decatur county, near the Rush county line, but the alleged offense involving the cattle stealing took place in this county. Both are serving terms in the prison of from 2 to 24 years. In seeking clemency, Morford based his plea on the need of his support at home by his wife and their several children.

NEW HEAT RECORD FOR SUMMER ESTABLISHED

Thermometer Reaches 91 Degrees Above at Mid-day, With No Relief in Sight

TORRID WAVE ALL OVER STATE

Today hung up a new-heat record for this summer, according to Elwood Kirkwood at Maunzy, with the mercury at noon passing above the 91 mark, and with indications, he said, of it going higher before the peak is usually reached between two and three o'clock in the afternoon.

The highest on record this summer has been 90 degrees on Monday of this week, and during the hot spell a few weeks ago, but today this record fell when the thermometer reached 91, and was a shade past that mark at noon, showing a tendency on the part of the mercury to go still higher.

Hot weather and drought continued general throughout Indiana today with only a fair chance of relief. Thunder showers were promised by the weather man.

Meanwhile farmers throughout the state were watching the skies for clouds that may bring showers for their parched crops.

The drought is doing thousands of dollars damage to crops, particularly in the northern part of the state, according to reports.

The highest temperature reported in the state was 93 degrees at Columbus Tuesday.

TONSILS ARE REMOVED

Birney Linville of Clarksburg underwent an operation for the removal of tonsils at Dr. Frank Green's hospital this morning. It is understood that he is doing as nicely as can be expected.

H. S. CARNEY BETTER

H. S. Carney, 128 West Seventh st., who has been bedfast for a week with a severe case of pneumonia is much better, according to reports, and it is hoped that he will be entirely well in a short time.

COUNCIL ORDERS SEWER PLAN DRAWN

Believed This Will be Ample to Take Care of Water in Hodges Branch During Rains

TO FIGURE COSTS LATER

E. R. Casady Reappointed Member of School Board—Need of New Unit at Light Plant Seen

A still further discussion on the enclosing of Hodges Branch drain through Rushville, was taken up Tuesday night at the regular meeting of the city council, and definite action taken when Will Dill, engineer, was ordered to draw up plans and specifications for a five foot circular sewer and necessary lateral connections.

The decision of the council is opposite that of the opinion rendered by experts who suggested an enclosure of 4 feet deep and 16 feet wide, as being necessary to take care of the water, but the councilmen are of the opinion that the cost would be too excessive, and that a five foot sewer will be ample to take care of the water in heavy rains.

When the plans are submitted, an estimate on the cost can be made, and then the advisability of proceeding with the matter will be determined, together with the manner in which the assessments are to be levied.

E. R. Casady, member of the city school board whose term expires August 1, was reappointed to the board for another three years, being the democratic member of the city board of school trustees. His name was presented without opposition.

A report was read from A. T. Mahin, superintendent of the water and light plant, in which he called attention to the fact that the present load on the engines and machinery generating electricity, was about at its peak. He recommended the installation of an additional unit sufficient to take care of any added load that might arise within the next few months, and which will be necessary in case the new furniture factory desires service.

The matter was taken under consideration by the committee, and it will be carried over until the next meeting, or until the first meeting in July. A matter of rate adjustments will be considered, and a petition will be represented this summer to the public service commission asking for a revised schedule.

SUM OF $105.45 RAISED ON TORNADO RELIEF FUND

Report of Treasurer Reveals Fact at Monthly Meeting of Jackson Township Farm Bureau

MUSIC AND READINGS GIVEN

The Jackson Township Farm Bureau contributed $105.45 to tornado relief, it was revealed in the report of the treasurer, Court Oldham, made at the monthly meeting at the township school building Tuesday evening.

Herschel VanMatre, county agent, spoke on a summer's experience in the Chicago stockyards, having worked there with a commission firm in 1916 and Orville Leisure gave an account of the visit of Rush county farmers to the Indianapolis stockyards Tuesday of last week. Four other farmers from the township went. He advised every farmer to visit the stockyards at their first opportunity, because of the valuable experience such a trip offered.

There were 185 in attendance and the crowd enjoyed two vocal solos by Mrs. Cedric Ball and four readings by Miss Grace Overman of Carthage, who won the county oratorical contest here a few weeks ago. Robert Holt also repeated his performance of playing on five instruments at one time—the harmonica, guitar, snare and bass drums and the "bones."

It was announced at the meeting that the Girls' 4-H Club would meet Thursday afternoon and that the township Woman's Sewing Club would meet Thursday afternoon, June 11.

COUNCIL ORDERS
SEWER PLAN DRAWN

The first car of oil for the streets will be ordered shipped at once, and the second car will follow a few days afterwards, so that the streets can be put into shape within a short time. Many of the streets which were repaired this spring, are badly in need of oiling.

The matter of bus regulation through the city was discussed, but no action taken. The council will attempt to work on a routing system for buses, so that they can avoid the congested districts and street turns as much as possible.

A representative of an automatic fire door opening device was heard by the councilmen, and his offer was taken under advisement. The fire station is to have new doors, as included in the remodeling plans, and the device offered for the new doors is automatic. The doors spring open, and have a timing apparatus, which automatically closes the doors after the trucks have gone out.

The police committee was given power to use their own judgment in allowing a shift in the force on Sundays, in order to provide a one day a week holiday for each member, and some plan along this line will be worked out.

The plans and specifications for the curb and gutter along West Eleventh street were presented and filed and the council approved them.
The same plans were approved for a similar improvement in North Oliver street, from Ninth to Eleventh, and on the west side of the street.

"It seems to me perfectly proper for any one upon any suitable occa-

a navy in keeping with the greatness one who is responsible not only for our friendly relations with other

I know it does not now exist when those connected with our navy are justified, either directly or by inferand by arousing national suspicion

The Constitution in 1950

The biennial Council of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, representing three million club women in the United States, opened a campaign for uniform marriage and divorce laws at West Baden, Ind. The goal of the campaign is an amendment to the constitution.

The council also went on record as favoring re-submission of the child labor amendment to the states for ratification, it having failed to receive the required two-thirds in the first test.

In view of the tendency to make the constitution a patchwork, and undermine its effectiveness by overloading it with amendments, one is inclined to wonder what the constitution will be like in 1950.

Nearly fifty constitutional amendments and a score of bills which would revise the present system of government, are pending in the congress.

Both amendments proposed by the General Federation of Women's Clubs have merit because they seek to cure a recognized evil, but whether the medicine prescribed will do the patient—the people of the United States—more harm than good is the question that must be considered.

One amendment leads to another. When one set of faddists wins, there is another set on their heels wanting another patch tacked on. "You help me with my patch and I will help you with yours," is the logical development, and if some effort is not made to guard the constitution against such mass formations, one shudders to contemplate what the basic law of the land will look like twenty five years hence.

One of the most dangerous proposals is a change in the method by

Tanlac added 20 pounds

"Seven years' stomach trouble cost me lots of money, but a bottle of Tanlac made me a well and happy man. I have gained 20 lbs.—never felt so well!"

which the states ratify amendments. It provides any state may take action to get a popular vote to affirm or reverse the action of its legislators, such a vote to stand in lieu of prior action by the legislature.

This is a wide departure from the ideal of representative government, which the framers of the constitution left the people of this country as a heritage to preserve. We have already gone too far from the principal of representative government. We need to guard against further encroachment.

You Know The Breed

There is no mistaking a pessimist—you can recognize one as soon as you see him.

His countenance is shrouded in gloom so thick that a smile has no chance of escaping. If he has a slight toothache, he is as solicitous of his jaw as a man is of his first automobile.

If he has a slight touch of lumbar, he walks as if he had one foot in the grave. If he is afflicted with indigestion, as most of his kind are, he never loses an opportunity to tell his friends about it.

If there is nothing wrong physically, which is rare, he fancies "in the dark recesses of his imagination that the world is going to the eternal bowwows."

All models of pessimists are the same. That's the reason you will have no difficulty in recognizing one.

Curing them is questionable. Those in the last stages are beyond hope, but a little persuasion used on those who are not too far gone may lead to a conversion and add another good citizen to the community.

Stewart's Washington Letter

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — The snappy style in which explorers make arctic and antarctic dashes today compares oddly with the laboriousness of such expeditions not so many years ago.

The up-to-date venturer into high latitudes tells of his exploits as he'd describe a walk down the street. For instance, Captain Robert Bartlett, a veteran of several of Admiral Peary's trips, describes his experiences with less stress on their hardships and dangers than the average pedestrian places on an account of a difficult crossing of a busy street.

"BUT, cap," I reasoned with him one day, "easy as it sounds, according to your story, nevertheless it's a fact that lots of explorers have lost their lives at the north and south poles or thereabouts. How do you explain that?"

"Those old timers," replied the captain, "didn't know their business. They loaded themselves down with supplies and equipment until they were themselves out hugging their own outfits with them. An arctic expedition needs to keep moving."

"Those chaps used to spend as much time pitching camp and pulling up stakes again, and cooking and fussing, as they did on their travels. Finally, too played out to tote their junk any further and afraid to abandon anything, they just sat down in the midst of it and froze or starved to death."

(Chicago News)

In Chicago, automobile deaths now average 50 a month, yet, the Balkans are getting all of the attention.

LIEUTENANT FREDERICK SCHWATKA, well known in his day, spoke in much the casual tone of Captain Bartlett of the perils of the north. As a very young reporter I interviewed him years ago concerning his exploratory work in interior Alaska, then little known.

Emerging from the wilderness on his way to the sea he had crossed the Coast Range by way of Chilkooot Pass, later famed as the principal highway of the Klondike goldseekers entering the country. At this latter period the pass's horrors were described in a way to daunt the bravest.

Schwatka told about it like this: "My Indians and I reached the pass at dusk and camped. Next morning we crossed, finding it rather dangerous, for a fog prevented us from seeing plainly and a misstep might have meant a bad fall."

ATTORNEY GENERAL SARGENT has grown accustomed to having men insist on long penitentiary terms for themselves and kick because they haven't been hanged.

Gerald Chapman, given 20 years at Atlanta for robbery and death for murder, recently demanded of Sargent the privilege of serving his prison term first. Vuco Perovich, doomed to death for murder, had his sentence commuted to life at Leavenworth. Now he tells Sargent he never asked, wanted or accepted his commutation. Having been cheated of his right to die by the rope, he demands freedom.

Mrs. Harry Ashcroft Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieved Her of Severe Illness and Pain

MRS. HARRY ASHCROFT 632 BEECH AVENUE, COVINGTON, KY.

Covington, Ky.—"I was so weak and nervous I could hardly do my housework as I could not stand because of the bearing-down pains in my back and abdomen. I sat down most of the time and did what I could do in that way—as washing dishes, etc. One day a book describing Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines was put in my mail box. I saw how the Vegetable Compound had helped others so I gave it a trial. I had to take about a dozen bottles before I gained my strength, but I certainly praise this medicine. Then I took Lydia E. Gilman City, Missouri.

Pinkham's Blood Medicine for poor blood. I was cold all the time. I would be so cold I could hardly sit still and in the palms of my hands there would be drops of sweat. I also used the Sanative Wash and I recommend it also. You may publish this letter and I will gladly answer letters from women and advise my neighbors about these medicines."

Mrs. Boyer Also Found Help

Gilman City, Missouri—"I was in such a condition that I could not eat nor sleep to do me any good and I felt draggy all the time. My head ached, my right side and back would almost kill me at times, and I could be on my feet only a short while at a time. I was irregular and so nervous, irritable and despondent that I thought I could not stand the strain much longer. I had been this way more or less for ten years, but the last two years was just terrible. I took medicines, but got little relief until I began to take the Vegetable Compound. I took three bottles before I could see any change at all. I have taken seven in all and am improving right along. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and take the Liver Pills. I can do most of my work now, and I live on a farm and there is lots of it to do. I wash, iron, hoe the garden, raise chickens and tend to the milk."—Mrs. T. M. BOYER, Gilman City, Missouri.

Outstanding Stars

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, June 3—Eddie Collins, the brilliant playing manager of the Chicago White Sox, and George Kelly, the star all-around player for the New York Giants, lost very little time early this season in establishing themselves as candidates for the prizes offered to the most valuable players in the major leagues.

When the two leagues decided to reward with a citation or a cash prize, as in the case of the National League, the player voted the most valuable in the league, it was made clear to the writers chosen to make the selection that the honor was not intended for the biggest star, the best gate attraction, nor the most popular player, but for the one who proved himself of most value to his team.

The American League was the pioneer in the movement to recognize the individual brilliance and the team spirit of a player when a diploma was offered in 1922. The three selections since then have been happy choices for popular awards.

George Sisler won the honor in 1922, Babe Ruth was selected in 1923 and last year the laurel was awarded to Walter Johnson, one of the most capable and highly popular characters in baseball.

The name of Eddie Collins, rated as one of the greatest second basemen in the history of baseball, was conspicuous in the ballots cast at each election, but he was unfortunate in having for opposition three players who outshone him in color only. Collins always has been such a perfect mechanic at his business that he did not draw unto himself the spotlight that was attracted by Sisler, Ruth and Johnson.

The rule in the American League provides that a player once selected for the honor becomes ineligible as a candidate for the second or third time and this rule removes practically all the rivals that Collins might have this year for election. Even in an open field, where Sisler, Ruth or Johnson could be a candidate again, Collins would be an outstanding candidate.

In his first year as a manager, Collins has shown all the genius of an executive that he has demonstrated as a player for years and years.

He took a team that received only scant attention when the experts were making their pre-season predictions about the outcome of the pennant race and got it playing ball at a rate that made it look like a first division certainty. That in itself is worth some kind of a prize. Along with clever management and sagacious handling of pitchers, Collins held up his end of the field work with all his customary brilliance.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCORE BOARD

Yesterday's Hero: Ty Cobb, veteran manager of the Detroit Tigers smacked a homer in the ninth inning and beat the White Sox, 16 to 15 in a crazy game.

Bob Meusel accounted for four runs with two homers and gave the Yankees an 8 to 5 victory over the Senators. The Yankees benched Pipp, Ward and Schang and won with substitutes.

Cochrane's single with the bases filled scored three runs and started the Athletics to a 15 to 2 win over the Red Sox. Rommel pitched his ninth winner of the season.

Art Nehf lost control in the 11th inning with the bases filled and let in the run that enabled the Robins to beat the Giants 6 to 5.

Gason's double with the bases loaded scored three runs and helped him win his own game for the Browns against the Indians by a score of 8 to 3.

Jim Bottomley hit two homers, the first with the bases filled and the Cardinals beat the Reds, 8 to 2.

Henline's homer with two on was the only good poke the Phillies could get off Gene Genewich and the Braves won.

Ruth Brings in Tying Run

New York, June 3—With two hits in four trips to the plate, Babe Ruth the invalid Yankee player a prominent part in snapping the club out of its slump yesterday when the Yankees beat the Senators 8 to 5. The first time up he was hit by a pitched ball, he fanned the second time, singled the third, grounded out the fourth and smacked in the tying moved for a relief runner as his legs are still weak.

Mrs. Norm Norris and Miss Laura Caldwell were charming hostesses Tuesday evening at the home of the former in North Main street, when they entertained the members of the Friendship class of St. Paul's M. E. church. During the business meeting, it was decided to hold the annual pitch-in supper at Memorial Park, Wednesday, June 1, for the members of the class. Mrs. Maible Goodson and Mrs. George Cherry had charge of the program at the close of the business session. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

The Misses Louise Pitman, Laurette Abercrombie, Katherine Wamsley, Virginia Arand and Lorna Marian Scull, and Mrs. Mary Ruth Osborne, Mrs. Albert Stevens, Mrs. Herschell VanMatre, Mrs. C. A. They were representatives of the Young Ladies Mission Circle of the St. Paul's M. E. church. Splendid programs were held throughout the day, the devotional services for each session being in charge of the Rushville people. At noon a box lunch was served to the delegates.

Among the lovely bridal parties being given for Mrs. Russell Bell, who was recently married, was a bridge-shower given by Miss Emily Mauzy Tuesday evening at her home in North Main street. The home was elaborately decorated in the color scheme of pink and white, pretty pink roses and peonies being used in the appointments. After the card games delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, the small luncheon tables being adorned with bud vases with pink roses. The guests then were invited to the dining room where the bridal gifts were displayed on the dining table. A large bouquet of pink peonies centered the table and two large candelabras with pink candles were placed on each end of the tables. The gifts were tied with pink and white streamers and the petals of the peonies were scattered over the table. Mrs. Bell was formerly Miss Virginia Haydon.

Orville Morgan of the Cincinnati Bible school, Miss Nellie C. Young, state superintendent of the children's division of the Indiana council of Religious Education, Master Max Taylor of Indianapolis, Mrs. Caroline Hodge, Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Hodge and Mr. and Mrs. Oren Veatch. Daubenspeck of this city motored to Orange Tuesday evening and were guests at a banquet served by the Masonic lodge of that vicinity. Approximately two hundred and fifty masons, including visitors from Connersville, Indianapolis, Anderson and this city, were entertained. FORD STOLEN, FOUND A machine owned by John Huffman of near Andersonville was stolen from the streets in this city Friday evening, while Mr. Huffman was in a local store in West Second street. The car was afterwards found abandoned on a road south of the city, and had probably been taken in by "joy riders."

Polka Dots and Lots of Them

WHITE polka dots of assorted sizes cover the surface of this new silk frock with long sleeves and scarf neck that makes such a youthful and serviceable frock. There are wide pleats in the front of the skirt, but the back is plain, and the crush girdle is worn low over the hips tied in a bow at the side.

Hedda Hoyt Talks About Things That Interest The Busy Woman of 1925

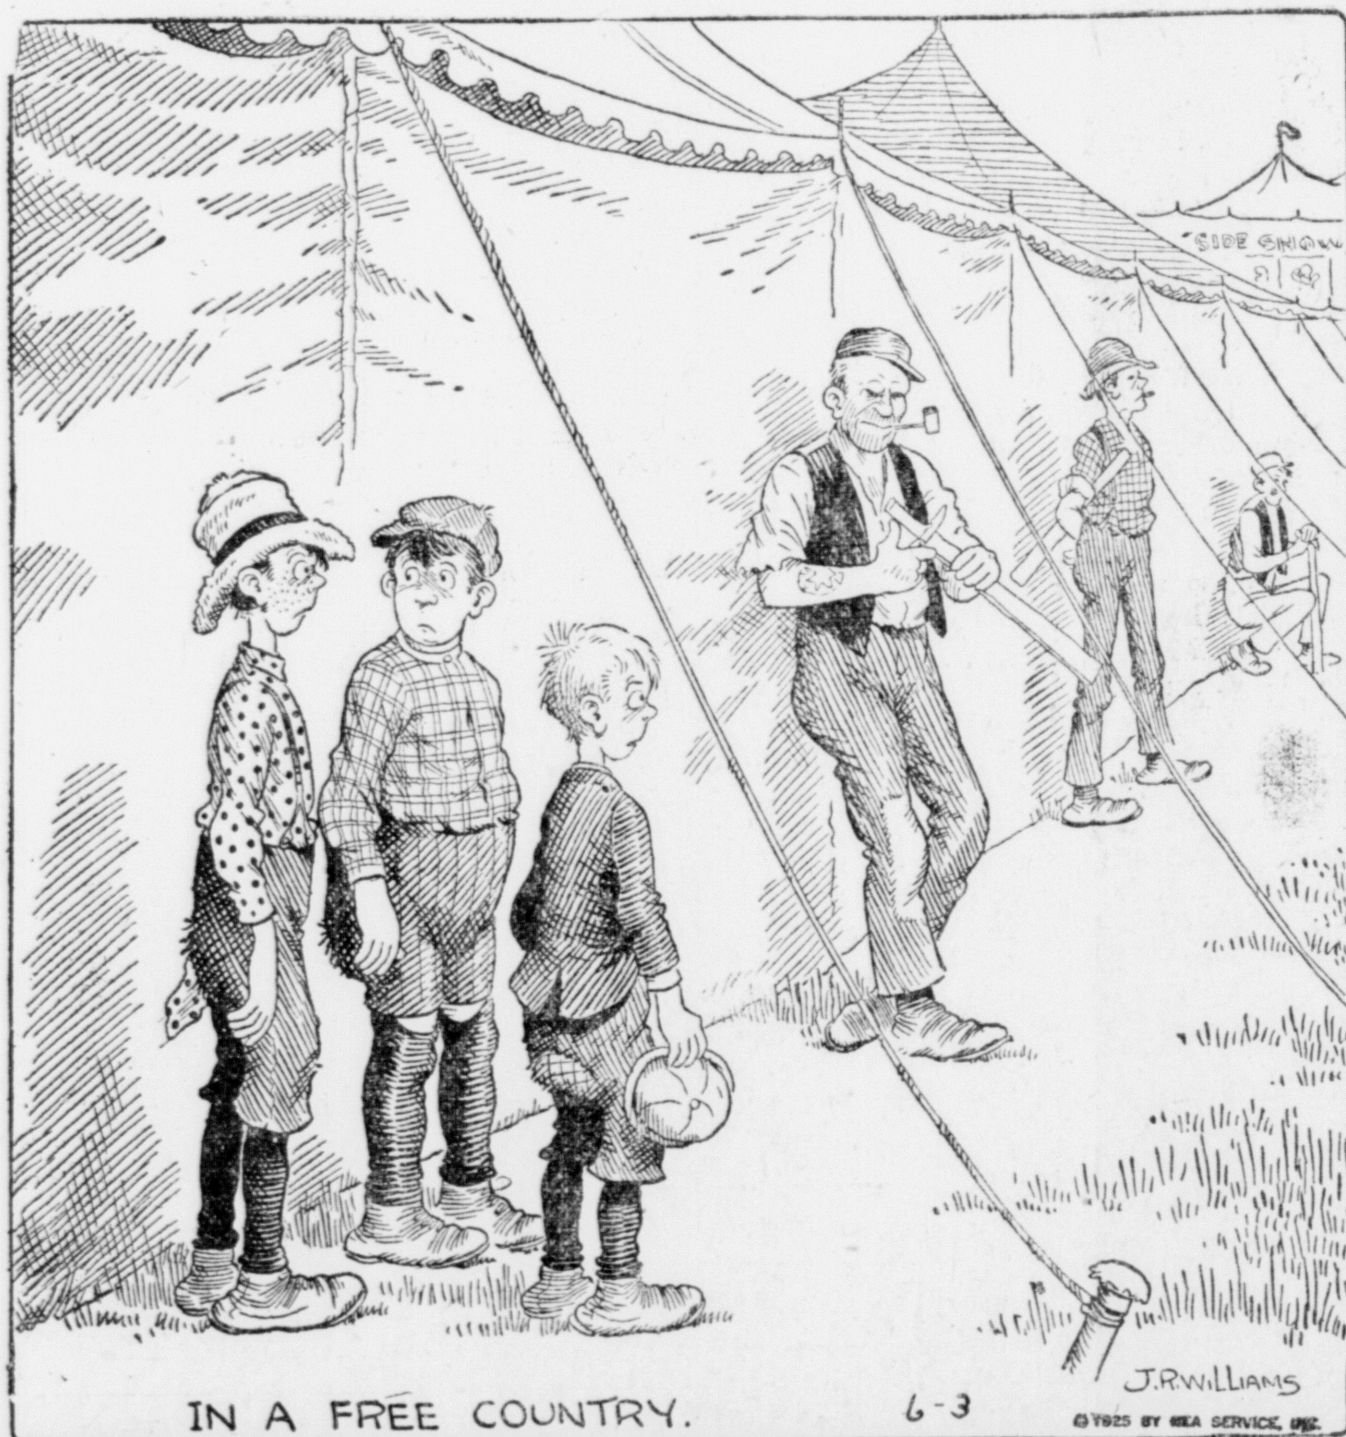

By HEDDA HOYT
(Written for United Press)

New York, June 3—Home seamstresses are now busy making frocks for summer days and wash frocks, though simple, require even more care in the making than frocks which one sends to the cleaners. One should always be certain that wash materials have been shrunk before making. It is a good plan to soak the material in cold water to which has been added two or three tablespoons of salt. Water will shrink the material and salt tends to set the color. Even after these precautions the wash frock often shrinks a bit after several washings, so one should cut the armholes a little larger than required and allow sufficient material at the hem.

Many women are careless about the stitch of the machine, preferring a long loose stitch which saves time. Large stitches may be used on heavy materials and taffetas, but they pull apart on cotton goods which require laundering. Use a medium stitch and be sure that the thread of the bobbin and the needle are of the same number to assure an even stitch which will not draw. Rounded necklines and sleeveless armholes should be faced in bias material or tape. Where circular insets are used on the skirt, one should finish the seam with seambinding that is cut on the straight of the goods. A straight strip of binding prevents the circular inset from sagging.

Where material puckers with the machine stitch, one should place a piece of thin paper under the material, sewing it into the seam. The paper is easily removed afterwards and prevents drawing of the seam. Chiffons, laces and georgettes often require a paper foundation upon which to sew.

Figured georgettes and chiffons are materials which the home dressmaker is using much of this season. Large floral designs or very small designs are easier to work on than conventional patterns which must be matched at the seams. Plaid patterns are also difficult to match at the seams. Pleated frocks are usually bound with self material rather than with contrasting colors this season.

The Modern Woodmen lodge of New Salem will give an ice cream social at their hall in New Salem Thursday evening June 4th 6:30-12

FOR VIOLATION OF POSSESSION CLAUSE

Chester Taylor Goes on Trial in Circuit Court Before Jury and Special Judge Miller

VERDICT BY NIGHT POSSIBLE

Sheriff and Chief of Police Testify to Finding Moonshine in Defendant's Rooms

Chester Taylor went on trial today in the circuit court on the charge of violating the new liquor law, being charged specifically with that section in which it is illegal to have liquor in any quantity within your possession.

Frederic Miller of Franklin, judge of the Johnson county circuit court, was acting as special judge in the case, and a jury was not obtained until after eleven o'clock this morning.

One witness, Sheriff Hunt, was heard this morning, and he was followed this afternoon by Ora Blackburn, chief of police. Other officers were to testify for the state and indications were that the case would be given over to the jury late this afternoon.

Officers testified that they conducted a raid on the rooms occupied by Taylor and confiscated a bottle of moonshine, and also another bottle that contained a small amount.

The jury that heard the case consisted of A. J. Trowbridge, Albert Camdy, Elmer Alexander, Don Brooks, W. B. Kirkpatrick, Theodore Abercrombie, Jess Retherford, Walter Conway, L. H. Anderson, Charley Lamberson, Loyd Wagoner and Dora David.

The trial today is the first to be tried under the illegal possession section of the new "bone dry" law in Indiana. A similar statute was declared unconstitutional when the former law was passed several years ago, and the 1925 legislature is believed to have remedied the faults in the law, so that conviction can be made if a person is found with only a few drops of liquor either on their person, or within their property.

Upon conviction on first offense, the law sets out that the person may be fined in any sum up to $500, to which may be added a sentence at the penal farm not to exceed six months. A second offense constitutes a felony, punishable with a prison term.

There was no other business in court today aside from regular routine office work in charge of Judge Sparks, who is preparing the court calendar for the final few weeks of court before summer adjournment.

INTERURBAN TRAINS COLLIDE, NINE HURT

Motorman on Southbound Car Took Headache Tablet and Remembered Nothing Afterwards

ACCIDENT NEAR KOKOMO

(By United Press)

Kokomo, Ind., June 3—Nine persons were seriously injured and fifteen others slightly hurt today in a head-on collision between two interurban trains on the Union Traction lines five miles northeast of here.

Motormen of the trains had time to check the speed before the crash.
The northbound train had a trailer and all three coaches caught fire and were destroyed.

C. O. Hedges, a passenger on the northbound car said there was no panic although the car was well filled.

The northbound car was steel construction and ploughed through the smoker of the southbound car.
Ambulances and fire fighting apparatus was rushed from Kokomo to the scene.

The two cars were supposed to meet at Castor, a siding near the scene of the accident.

Motorman Compton of the southbound car said he had been suffering from a headache and took two tablets of medicine and after that he remembered nothing until the crash.

INDIAN CARS IN A COLLISION

Both Machines Damaged But Occupants Are Not Hurt

An accident occurring north of the city near the R. J. Hall farm shortly after seven o'clock Tuesday evening resulted in slight damage being done to two cars, one being a Ford coupe owned by Harry Barrett, local restaurant proprietor.

The name of the owner of the other car, which was a Ford touring, was not learned. The Barrett car was damaged about the front, a fender being badly bent and a wheel torn off. It was occupied by Mr.
Barrett, his wife and mother. No one was injured.

The coupe was brought to this city by a garage crew and the touring car, which had a broken wheel and bent a fender was still in the ditch at the side of the road today.

BOULEVARD LIGHTS TO BE INSTALLED THIS MONTH

Twenty-Five Ornamental Posts Will be Erected so That Additions May Be Made

A. T. Mahin, superintendent of city water and light plant, announced at the city council meeting Tuesday evening that he would be ready probably by the middle of the month to begin the installation of the boulevard pedestal lights along the park driveway. There are 25 lights to be erected, in addition to four lights provided by the city on the bridge at Twelfth street.

There were not enough subscriptions for the light posts to extend from Eleventh south to Ninth, along the present city park, but the installation will be made so that these lights can be added at any time.

Simon Stewart has drawn plans in detail for the entrance to the park in North Main street, which will be erected soon.

The entrance will be constructed of ornamental brick, capped with stone, and there will be an ornamental light on each post.

The appearance of the boulevard has been improved since the eye crop along either side has been cut.

LONE UNMASKED BANDIT HOLDS UP BRANCH BANK

Coolly Walks Away With $3,000 in Cash After Locking Three Employees in the Basement

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., June 3—A lone unmasked bandit today held up the Rural Street branch of the Fletcher Savings and Trust Company here and coolly walked away with $3,000 in cash after locking three employees of the bank in the basement.

The three employees were alone in the bank when the man entered and asked for change for a $100 bill.
He was dressed in an overall suit, was small of stature, and about forty years of age.

Mrs. Mary Chapman, manager of the bank, was at the counter while Donald Kallach and John Wiles, assistants, were working back of the case.

The bandit thrust a revolver in Mrs. Chapman's face and reached across the counter and took all the money in the cage and then forged the employees to go into the basement of the building.

The same bank was robbed of $4-000 last October when two bandits held up a clerk.

ROOF CATCHES FIRE

The fire department was called this morning at 9:30 o'clock to the residence of Ronald Breece, 903 North Willow street, where the roof had ignited near a chimney. The loss was only a small matter, as it was discovered before the shingles were given a chance to get on fire all over. The property is owned by Mrs. W. A. Caldwell, and the loss is covered by insurance, not exceeding $3.

BODY OF T. R. MARSHALL BACK IN NATIVE STATE

High Officials of City and State and Escort of Scottish Rite Masons Meet Train

INDIANAPOLIS IN TRIBUTE

Indianapolis, Ind., June 3—The body of Thomas Riley Marshall, former vice president of the United States, was brought back to his native state of Indiana today.

High officials of the state and city and an escort of Scottish Rite Masons, met the train bearing the body of the war time vice-president, when it arrived from Washington at 11:30
a. m.

As the funeral procession moved through the heart of Indianapolis to the Marshall home on North Illinois street, chiming on Christ church told a funeral dirge.

A detachment of twenty mounted policemen headed the procession.
Flags on all public buildings were at half mast and traffic came to a standstill as the cortege passed.

Funeral services in charge of the Scottish Rite, of which the late vice president was a state officer, will be held at the Marshall home at 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

After the funeral the body will be taken to Crown Hill cemetery and placed in a receiving vault pending final arrangements for burial be-shall in the cemetery at Marion, Ind.

KEEPING PEACE ITS HIGHEST FUNCTION

Coolidge Tells Annapolis Graduates Navy Can't Succeed if It Represents Naked Force

MORE THAN SWORD NEEDED

President Uses Occasion to Re-Emphasize Universal Peace Aims of the United States

By DALE VAN EVERY
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., June 3—America can only fulfill its highest functions if it exists as "an instrument of righteousness protecting the proper security of this country while serving to maintain world peace," President Coolidge said today while delivering the commencement address to the graduating class of the naval academy.

"I do not believe the American navy can succeed if it represent mere naked force," said the president. "I want to see it represent much more than that. We must make it an instrument of righteousness. If we are to promote peace on earth we must have a great deal more than the power of the sword. We must call in action the spiritual and moral forces of mankind."

The president seized the occasion to re-emphasize the universal peaceful aims of the United States.

"It is known of all the world that we have no present or traditional enemies, that we covet no territory, harbor no imperialistic designs and are not arming ourselves with the exception of attacking or being attacked," he said. "So far as we can look into the future, so far as we can gauge the power and temper of other peoples, there never was a time when it was less likely that any other nation or combination of nations would or could make any attack upon us."

In this connection Mr. Coolidge vigorously denounced persons both in and out of the military or naval services who would seek to advance the cause of preparedness by pronouncing the imminent dangers of war or by proclaiming the hostile intentions of other countries.

"The suggestion that other people are harboring a hostile intent toward us a very serious charge to make," he said. "We would not relish having our honorable motives and peaceful intentions questioned; others cannot relish having any of us question theirs."

county, and to this end, is asking the assistance of relatives and in charge of marking the graves.

They are Dr. L. P. Wilkinson, Wil-

CLEMENCY IS REFUSED FOR RAYMOND MORFORD

Plea That he is Needed at Home Fails to Move the State Board of Pardons

CONVICTED FOR STEALING

Gov. Jackson, upon recommendation of the state board of pardons, today refused to grant clemency to Raymond Moford, sentenced from this county last fall on a grand larceny charge. In the list of paroles granted today seven were released from state prisons, 12 persons had their sentences reduced and 64 were refused clemency.

The case of the local court involving grand larceny for which Mof-ford and Elbert Meek were sentenced following their conviction for stealing cattle near Milroy last Halloween night, and taking them to the market at Indianapolis.

Moford resides in Decatur county, near the Rush county line, but the alleged offense involving the cattle stealing took place in this county. Both are serving terms in the prison of from 2 to 24 years. In seeking clemency, Moford based his plea on the need of his support at home by his wife and their several children.

NEW HEAT RECORD FOR SUMMER ESTABLISHED

Thermometer Reaches 91 Degrees Above at Mid-day, With No Relief in Sight

TORRID WAVE ALL OVER STATE

Today hung up a new-heat record for this summer, according to Elwood Kirkwood at Maunzy, with the mercury at noon passing above the 91 mark, and with indications, he said, of it going higher before the peak is usually reached between two and three o'clock in the afternoon.

The highest on record this summer has been 90 degrees on Monday of this week, and during the hot spell a few weeks ago, but today this record fell when the thermometer reached 91, and was a shade past that mark at noon, showing a tendency on the part of the mercury to go still higher.

Hot weather and drought continued general throughout Indiana today with only a fair chance of relief. Thunder showers were promised by the weather man.

Meanwhile farmers throughout the state were watching the skies for clouds that may bring showers for their parched crops.

The drought is doing thousands of dollars damage to crops, particularly in the northern part of the state, according to reports.

The highest temperature reported in the state was 93 degrees at Columbus Tuesday.

TONSILS ARE REMOVED

Briny Linville of Clarksburg underwent an operation for the removal of tonsils at Dr. Frank Green's hospital this morning. It is understood that he is doing as nicely as can be expected.

st., who has been bedfast for a week with a severe case of pneumonia is much better, according to reports, tirely well in a short time.

Unit at Light Plant Seen

A still further discussion on the enclosing of Hodges Branch drain through Rushville, was taken up Tuesday night at the regular meeting of the city council, and definite action taken when Will Dill, engineer, was ordered to draw up plans and specifications for a five foot circular sewer and necessary lateral connections.

The decision of the council is opposite that of the opinion rendered by experts who suggested an enclosure of 4 feet deep and 16 feet wide, as being necessary to take care of the water, but the councilmen are of the opinion that the cost would be too excessive, and that a five foot sewer will be ample to take care of the water in heavy rains.

When the plans are submitted, an estimate on the cost can be made, and then the advisability of proceeding with the matter will be determined, together with the manner in which the assessments are to be levied.

E. R. Casady, member of the city school board whose term expires August 1, was reappointed to the board for another three years, being the democratic member of the city board of school trustees. His name was presented without opposition.

A report was read from A. T. Ma-hin, superintendent of the water and light plant, in which he called attention to the fact that the present load on the engines and machinery generating electricity, was about at its peak. He recommended the installation of an additional unit sufficient to take care of any added load that might arise within the next few months, and which will be necessary in case the new furniture factory desires service.

The matter was taken under consideration by the committee, and it will be carried over until the next meeting, or until the first meeting in July. A matter of rate adjustments will be considered, and a petition will be represented this summer to the public service commission asking for a revised schedule.

SUM OF $105.45 RAISED ON TORNADO RELIEF FUND

Report of Treasurer Reveals Fact at Monthly Meeting of Jackson Township Farm Bureau

The Jackson Township Farm Bureau contributed $105.45 to tornado relief, it was revealed in the report of the treasurer, Court Oldham, made at the monthly meeting at the township school building Tuesday evening.

Herschel VanMatre, county agent, spoke on a summer's experience in the Chicago stockyards, having worked there with a commission firm in 1916 and Orville Leisure gave an account of the visit of Rush county farmers to the Indianapolis stockyards Tuesday of last week. Four other farmers from the township went. He advised every farmer to visit the stockyards at their first opportunity, because of the valuable experience such a trip offered.

There were 185 in attendance and the crowd enjoyed two vocal solos by Mrs. Cedric Ball and four readings by Miss Grace Overman of Carthage, who won the county oratorical contest here a few weeks ago.
Robert Holt also repeated his performance of playing on five instruments at one time—the harmonica, guitar, snare and bass drums and the "bones."

It was announced at the meeting that the Girls' 4-H Club would meet Thursday afternoon and that the township Woman's Sewing Club would meet Thursday afternoon, June 11.

The first car of oil for the streets will be ordered shipped at once, and the second car will follow a few days afterwards, so that the streets can be put into shape within a short time. Many of the streets which were repaired this spring, are badly in need of oiling.
The matter of bus regulation through the city was discussed, but no action taken. The council will attempt to work on a routing system for buses, so that they can avoid the congested districts and street turns as much as possible.
A representative of an automatic fire door opening device was heard by the councilmen, and his offer was taken under advisement. The fire station is to have new doors, as included in the remodeling plans, and the device offered for the new doors is automatic. The doors spring open, and have a timing apparatus, which automatically closes the doors after the trucks have gone out.
The police committee was given power to use their own judgment in allowing a shift in the force on Sundays, in order to provide a one day a week holiday for each member, and some plan along this line will be worked out.
The plans and specifications for the curb and gutter along West Eleventh street were presented and filed and the council approved them. The same plans were approved for a similar improvement in North Oliver street, from Ninth to Eleventh, and on the west side of the street.

It seems to me perfectly proper for any one upon any suitable occasion to advocate the maintenance of a navy in keeping with the greatness and dignity of our country. But as one who is responsible not only for our national defense, but likewise our friendly relations with other peoples and our title to the good opinion of the world, I feel that the occasion will very seldom arise and I know it does not now exist when those connected with our navy are justified, either directly or by inference, by inserting that other specified powers are arming against us and by arousing national suspicion and hatred attempting to cause us to arm against them.

BIBLE THOUGHT
—FOR TODAY—A Cure for Worry:—Be careful for nothing; but in every thing, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Philippian 4: 6, 7.Prayer: O Lord our God, we thank Thee for the assurance that Thou wilt supply our every need out of Thy riches in glory;
in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Constitution in 1950

The biennial Council of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, representing three million club women in the United States, opened a campaign for uniform marriage and divorce laws at West Baden, Ind.The goal of the campaign is an amendment to the constitution.The council also went on record as favoring resubmission of the child labor amendment to the states for ratification, it having failed to receive the required two-thirds in the first test.In view of the tendency to make the constitution a patchwork, and undermine its effectiveness by overloading it with amendments, one is inclined to wonder what the constitution will be like in 1950.Nearly fifty constitutional amendments and a score of bills which would revise the present system of government, are pending in the congress.Both amendments proposed by the General Federation of Women's Clubs have merit because they seek to cure a recognized evil, but whether the medicine prescribed will do the patient—the people of the United States—more harm than good is the question that must be considered.One amendment leads to another.
When one set of faddists wins, there is another set on their heels waiting another patch tacked on. "You help me with my patch and I will help you with yours," is the logical development, and if some effort is not made to guard the constitution against such mass formations, one shudders to contemplate what the basic law of the land will look like twenty five years hence.One of the most dangerous proposals is a change in the method by which the states ratify amendments.

It provides any state may take action to get a popular vote to affirm or reverse the action of its legislators, such a vote to stand in lieu of prior action by the legislature.This is a wide departure from the ideal of representative government, which the framers of the constitution left the people of this country as a heritage to preserve. We have already gone too far from the principle of representative government.
We need to guard against further encroachment.

You Know The Breed

There is no mistaking a pessimist —you can recognize one as soon as you see him.His countenance is shrouded in gloom so thick that a smile has no chance of escaping. If he has a slight toothache, he is as solicitous of his jaw as a man is of his first automobile.If he has a slight touch of lumbago, he walks as if he had one foot in the grave. If he is afflicted with indigestion, as most of his kind are, he never loses an opportunity to tell his friends about it.If there is nothing wrong physically, which is rare, he fancies 'em in the dark recesses of his imagination that the world is going to the eternal bow-ows.All models of pessimists are the same. That's the reason you will have no difficulty in recognizing one.Curing them is questionable.
Those in the last stages are beyond hope, but a little persuasion used on those who are not too far gone may lead to a conversion and add another good citizen to the community.FIFTEEN YEARS

Stewart's Washington Letter

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service WriterWASHINGTON — The snappy style in which explorers make arctic and antarctic dashes today compares oddly with the laboriousness of such expeditions not so many years ago.The up-to-date venturer into high latitudes tells of his exploits as he'd describe a walk down the street. For instance, Captain Robert Admiral Peary's trips, describes his experiences with less stress on their hardships and dangers than the average pedestrian places (on an account of a difficult crossing of a busy street."BUT, cap," I reasoned with him one day, "easy as it sounds, according to your story, nevertheless it's a fact that lots of explorers have lost their lives at the north and south poles or thereabouts. How do you explain that?""Those old-timers," replied the captain, "didn't know their business. They loaded themselves down with supplies and equipment until they were themselves out lugging their own outfits with them. An arctic expedition needs to keep moving.""Those chaps used to spend as much time pitching camp and pulling up stakes again, and cooking and fussing, as they did on their travels. Finally, too played out to tote their junk any further and afraid to abandon anything, they just sat down in the midst of it and froze or starved to death."The Hodge-Podge ordered armored vessels to fight the U. S. dry navy. If they want a fight, let them have both barrels.Whenever organized creed shows its head, unorganized selfishness should get together and teach it a lesson.There is this to be said for couples in porch swings—they say little, but they hold their audience.Another one of life's inconsistencies is having young onions in season right at the time for love making.No matter how cheap divorce gets, it never will be a bargain because it takes two to make one.Groceries are edibles bought on credit and paid for payday if there is enough left after paying for gasoline, made for peace is that a modern battleship costs $16,500,000.

LIEUTENANT FREDERICK SCHWATKA, well known in his day, spoke in much the casual tone of Captain Bartlett of the perils of the north. As a very young reporter I interviewed him years ago concerning his exploratory work in interior Alaska, then little known.Emerging from the wilderness on his way to the sea, he had crossed the Coast Range by way of Chil-koot Pass, later famed as the principal highway of the Klondike goldseekers entering the country.
At this latter period the pass's horrors were described in a way to daunt the bravest.Schwatka told about it like this:
"My Indians and I reached the pass at dusk and camped. Next morning we crossed, finding it dangerous, for a fog prevented us from seeing plainly and a misstep might have meant a bad fall."ATTORNEY GENERAL SAR-GENT has grown accustomed to having men insist on long penitentiary terms for themselves and kick because they haven't been hanged.Gerald Chapman, given 20 years at Atlanta for robbery and death for murder, recently demanded of Sargent the privilege of serving his prison term first. Vuco Perovich, doomed to death for murder, had a sentence commuted to life at Leavenworth. Now he tells Sargent he never asked wanted or accepted his commutation. Having been cheated of his right to die by the rope, he demands freedom.Chicago, will end daylight saving.

such a condition that I could not eat nor sleep to do me any good and I felt draggy all the time. My head ached, my right side and back would almost kill me at times, and I could be on my feet only a short while at a time. I was irregular and so nervous, irritable and despondent that I thought I could not stand the strain much longer. I had been this way more or less for ten years, but the last two years was just terrible. I took medicines, but got little relief until I began to take the Vegetable Compound.
I took three bottles before I could see any change at all. I have taken seven in all and am improving right along. I have used Lydia E. Pink-now, and I live on a farm and there is lots of it to do. I wash, iron, hoe, strength, but I certainly praise this medicine. Then I took Lydia E.

When Better Automobiles Are Built, Buick Will Build Them.

No. 15

Question: Why is a Buick so safe and so easy to steer?Answer: Because of Buick's wonderful steering mechanism. It is the most expensive type now installed on any motor car—and worth the difference because it adds to Buick performance still another point of superiority.

Outstanding Stars

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, June 3—Eddie Collins, the brilliant playing manager of the Chicago White Sox, and George Kelly, the star all-around player for the New York Giants, lost very little time early this season in establishing themselves as candidates for the prizes offered to the most valuable players in the major leagues.

When the two leagues decided to reward with a citation or a cash prize, as in the case of the National League, the player voted the most valuable in the league, it was made clear to the writers chosen to make the selection that the honor was not intended for the biggest star, the best gate attraction, nor the most popular player, but for the one who proved himself of most value to his team.

The American League was the pioneer in the movement to recognize the individual brilliance and the team spirit of a player when a diploma was offered in 1922. The three selections since then have been happy choices for popular awards.

George Sisler won the honor in 1922, Babe Ruth was selected in 1923 and last year the laurel was awarded to Walter Johnson, one of the most capable and highly popular characters in baseball.

The name of Eddie Collins, rated as one of the greatest second basemen in the history of baseball, was conspicuous in the ballots cast at each election, but he was unfortunate in having for opposition three players who outshone him in color only. Collins always has been such a perfect mechanic at his business that he did not draw unto himself the spotlight that was attracted by Sisler, Ruth and Johnson.

The rule in the American League provides that a player once selected for the honor becomes ineligible as a candidate for the second or third time and this rule removes practically all the rivals that Collins might have this year for election. Even in an open field, where Sisler, Ruth or Johnson could be a candidate again, Collins would be an outstanding candidate.

In his first year as a manager, Collins has shown all the genius of an executive that he has demonstrated as a player for years and years.

He took a team that received only scant attention when the experts were making their pre-season predictions about the outcome of the pennant race and got it playing ball at a rate that made it look like a first division certainty. That in itself is worth some kind of a prize. Along with clever management and sagacious handling of pitchers, Collins held up his end of the field work with all his customary brilliance.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCORE BOARD

Yesterday's Hero: Ty Cobb, veteran manager of the Detroit Tigers, smacked a homer in the fifth inning and beat the White Sox, 16 to 15 in a crazy game.

Bob Meusel accounted for four runs with two homers and gave the Yankees an 8 to 5 victory over the Senators. The Yankees benched Pippy Ward and Schang and won with substitutes.

Cochrane's single with the bases filled scored three runs and started the Athletics to a 15 to 2 win over the Red Sox. Rummel pitched his ninth winner of the season.

Art Nehf lost control in the 11th inning with the bases filled and let in the run that enabled the Robins to beat the Giants 6 to 5.

Gason's double with the bases loaded, scored three runs and helped him win his own game for the Browns against the Indians by a score of 8 to 3.

Jim Bottomley hit two homers, the first with the bases filled and the Cardinals beat the Reds, 8 to 2.

Heinline's homer with two on was the only good poke the Phillies could get off Gene Gewiech and the Braves won.

Ruth Brings in Tying Run

New York, June 3—With two hits in four trips to the plate, Babe Ruth the invalid Yankee player a prominent part in snapping the club out of its slump yesterday when the Yankees beat the Senators 8 to 3. The first time up he was hit by a pitched ball, he fanned the second time, singled the third, grounded out the fourth and smacked in the tying moved for a relief runner as his legs are still weak.

Hedda Hoyt Talks About Things That Interest The Busy Woman of 1925

By HEDDA HOYT (Written for United Press)

New York, June 3—Home seamstresses are now busy making frocks for summer days and wash frocks, though simple, require even more care in the making than frocks which one sends to the cleaners.

One should always be certain that wash materials have been shrunk before making. It is a good plan to soak the material in cold water to which has been added two or three tablespoons of salt. Water will shrink the material and salt tends to set the color. Even after these precautions the wash frock often shrinks a bit after several washings, so one should cut the armholes a little larger than required and allow sufficient material at the hem.

Many women are careless about the stitch of the machine, preferring a long loose stitch which saves time. Large stitches may be used on heavy materials and tulle, but they pull apart on cotton goods which require laundering. Use a medium stitch and be sure that the thread of the bobbin and the needle are of the same number to assure an even stitch which will not draw. Rounded necklines and sleeveless armholes should be faced in bias material or tape. Where circular insets are used on the skirt, one should finish the seam with seambinding that is cut on the straight of the goods. A straight strip of binding prevents the circular inset from sagging. Where material puckers with the machine stitch, one should place a piece of thin paper under the material, sewing it into the seam. The paper is easily removed afterwards and prevents drawing of the seam. Chiffons, laces and georgettes often require a paper foundation upon which to sew. Figured georgettes and chiffons are materials which the home dressmaker is using much of this season. Large floral designs or very small designs are easier to work on than conventional patterns which must be matched at the seams. Plaid patterns are also difficult to match at the seams. Pieced frocks are usually bound with self material rather than with contrasting colors this season.
